

protect yourself
from pandemic influenza

Keep your distance

The flu virus can spread easily from an infected person even before they realise they are sick.

Try to keep a large step away from other people when you are in public.

